RAB Capital appoints Osman Shafi as Head of Fixed Income Sales

RAB Capital PLC is delighted to announce that Osman Shafi is appointed as Head of Fixed Income Sales.

Osman will join RAB Capital PLC from Brevan Howard, where he was instrumental in the development of the investor relations process. His previous roles prior to Brevan Howard included four years at Wellington Management. He started his career at Goldman Sachs after graduating in Economics from University College London.

Commenting on the appointment, Rod Barker, RAB Director of Business Development, said:

"We are delighted that someone of Osman's calibre and extensive client relationships has chosen to join RAB. His expertise in fixed income and macro-related strategies will help the positioning and distribution of the expanding range of RAB strategies in this area."
