RAB Capital strengthens Asian operations with appointment of David Seex as regional CEO

1 July 2010

RAB Capital plc (“RAB” or “the Company”) is pleased to announce the appointment of David Seex as the Chief Executive Officer of RAB Capital (Asia).

David will develop the Company’s activities in Asia, widening RAB’s contact base in the region, and will oversee the Company’s Hong Kong Office.

David has a deep knowledge of the hedge fund industry and a wealth of contacts across Asia having worked as a managing director at Citigroup, where he was a founding member of Citigroup Alternative Investments management team and from 2001 acted as Head of CAI in Asia. He joined Citigroup in 1998 after spending three years at United Distillers, part of Diageo plc, also based in Asia.

Commenting on the appointment, Stephen Couttie, RAB Capital’s Chief Executive, said:

“I am delighted that David Seex is joining us to head up and strengthen our Asian operations. His wealth of experience and contacts will be invaluable as we build out our business in the region.”
